

Choir Expectations

- Be on time with materials, seated in your assigned seat before the tardy bell rings.
- Develop an attitude of wanting to improve everyday.
- Be willing to try new ideas.
- Take responsibility for your own development as a musician, and therefore take responsibility for your own behavior.
- Respect and support your classmates.
- Make every rehearsal a quality experience.
- Listen carefully during rehearsals.
- Make a positive contribution.
- Show a willingness to work with others. Choir is a group effort, but every individual counts. Working together is the key to success.
- Attend all performances. Make this a priority.
